

Centre for Science, Technology & Society

School of Habitat Studies, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai

4th April 2023

The Centre for Science, Technology & Society of TISS, Mumbai invites applications for its forest rights and governance project in Chandrapur and Mumbai for two years (1 May 2023-30th April 2025).

Sl.no	Name of the post	Salary	No. of positions	Location	Mode of Recruitment
1	Policy Advocacy Officer	Rs. 50000 (consolidated)	01	Mumbai	On contract basis
2	Research Officer	Rs. 38500 (Consolidated)	01	Chandrapur District, Maharashtra	On contract basis

*A 10% increase on salary of project staff after one year.

Qualifications, Experience, and other requirements

Program Coordinator

Applicants must have a master's degree in social sciences or law with adequate knowledge on forest and land rights, forest laws, policy, and institutions, and minimum one year of rural field experience.

Ability to analyse and document policy, case laws and field insights.

Conduct field work in rural areas independently.

Ability to coordinate with government and civil society groups in Maharashtra, and organise training and capacity building programs independently

Basic skills in excel, SPSS, GPS and GIS

Must be speaking and writing in Marathi.

Policy Advocacy Officers

Applicants must have a master's degree in social sciences or law with adequate knowledge on forest, land and wildlife laws, policy, and institutions, and minimum one year of rural field experience.

Ability to analyse and document policy, case laws, write case studies from field insights.

Conduct field work in rural areas independently.

Ability to coordinate with government and civil society groups across India, and organise training and capacity building programs independently.

Basic skills in excel, SPSS, GPS and GIS

Must be well-versed in English, Hindi and any one regional language.

Research Officer

Applicants must have a master's degree in social sciences or law with adequate knowledge on forest rights act, forest laws, policy, and institutions, and minimum one year of rural field experience.

Ability to coordinate with government and civil society groups at the district and local levels in Maharashtra, and organise training and capacity building programs on forest rights and policies for government officers and Gram Sabha members independently.

Conduct field work in rural areas independently.

Good in analysis, documentation on policy, case laws, write case studies from field insights.

Basic skills in excel, SPSS, GPS and GIS

Must be speaking and writing Marathi.

Timeline

Last Date of Application Submission: 15th April 2023

Personal/Online Interview: 25th April 2023

Joining Date for the Selected Candidates: 1st May 2023

Procedure for Application Submission

Eligible candidates who can join as per the above timeline in the event of selection, may send their CV and two reference letters at this email id: tissforestrights@gmail.com on or before 15th April 2023.

Applicants for village coordinators are not required to send reference letter. Only the shortlisted candidates will be communicated for personal interview by 18th April 2023.

(Project Leader)